PRICE 5 CENTS

FAST TIME AT HARLEM.

Stem Winder, carrying 116 pounds and running to his best form, won the Youngster Stakes at Harlem yesterday in a mild drive from Colonnade, with Sidney C. Love an indifferent third. The five furlongs were negotiated in 59½ seconds, which is within two-fifths of a second of the track record. Of the ten scheduled to start Vestry, Tom Cogan and Poor Boy were scratched, but with Brookston carrying 111 pounds an added starter a field of eight faced the barrier. Sidney C. Love was made the favorite, being held at 13 to 5 while as good as 5 to 1 could be had against Stem Winder. Many of the sharp shooters fancied Watkins Overton at 5 to 1. To a good start Stem Winder rushed to the front and opened up a gap of two lengths on Colonnade, on which Sidney C. Love was lapped. Little change occurred in the position of the first three until after passing beyond the last eighth post, where Colonnade moved up fast on the leader. Although Knight roose him vigorously he could not quite get up, Stem Winder winning by a head with Sidney C. Love four lengths back. The last named tired fast in the closing strides and would have lost third place to Estrada Palma in a few more strides. The latter ran far below expectations. Watkins Overton was badly cut off just after the start and was never a serious contender thereafter. The stake was worth $2,370 to the winner.

Edward Corrigan has certainly a clever sprinter in Marta Santa, which won the second race easily from the fastest six furlongs horses now running in the west. Off well in his stride he at once shot to the front and, displaying sharp speed throughout, held an easy command, winning by one length from A. D. Gibson, which beat Duellist a head for second place. Federal and Icicle were lapped on Duellist at the wire. A. D. Gibson stood a long stretch drive with gameness. Federal began slowly, but moved up fast after the first half had been run and finished with a great rush, passing horses fast in the closing strides. Icicle displayed much speed and was battling with all but the winner at the end. Nickey D. made up ground in the last quarter. Burnie Bunton ran nowhere near to the form she displayed in her last race and was never a serious contender at any part of the dash. Death ran far below expectations and was always beaten off.

The day's opener, a five furlongs dash for two-year-olds, proved an easy thing for Floearline, which moved up from third position when turning for home and, easily passing into the lead a furlong out, won in a canter by three lengths from Style, which beat Joe Buckley a head for second place. Style ran an impressive race, making up much ground while coming down the final quarter and outstaying Joe Buckley in the closing strides for second place. The latter tired fast when the pinch came. Goodman showed scant speed and can do much better. King's Lady was a serious contender for a half mile only. She ran as if short and the race should do her much good.

S. C. Hildreth's entry, Hermencia and Nitrate, ran one two in the fourth race, a handicap at one and an eighth miles for three-year-olds and upward. Nitrate led by a big margin until in the last hundred yards, where Hermencia moved up fast and passed the wire one length in front of him. Nitrate was going strongly at the end, but Hildreth evidently preferred to win with Hermencia. Strangest finished third four lengths back of Nitrate. He showed much improvement and bears watching from now on. Aladdin ran a dull race and ceased to be a serious factor after six furlongs had been run.

Little Scout, showing a form reversal, took the fifth race in handy fashion by a length from Autumn Leaves, which finished a length before Hoodwink for second place. Little Scout began slowly, but moved up fast after six furlongs had been run and finished strongly down the last quarter next to the inside rail. Autumn Leaves' sudden improvement was simply inexplicable. Meade rode an indifferent race on Hoodwink, the filly finishing fast on her own courage. Golden Glitter appeared to have a winning chance when a furlong out, but tired rapidly when the last sixteenth struggle came up. Marque was never in the hunt.

Annie Thompson was certainly the best in the last race at the weights. From sixth position at the first quarter she gradually picked up those in front of her and getting into the lead in the last eighth, won handily by one length from The Caxon, which finished with a rush, nipping Frank M. a head on the post for second place. About ran in improved form and bears watching from now on. Aleo showed much speed for six furlongs and then quit badly. Eva Rice ran well for a half mile only.

A large and enthusiastic gathering was on hand and witnessed one of the best day's sport in some time, many of the finishes being of a close order. The track was at its best.

FUTURITY ELIGIBLES.

A bulletin issued by the Coney Island Jockey Club shows that 163 two-year-olds are now eligible to start for the Futurity, which will be decided Saturday, August 30. This insures a huge list of starters for the big race. Most of the eastern winners of the year are eligibles, but Savable is about the only western performer of prominence in. The names of Dick Welles, J. Sidney Walker, Olefant and Judith Campbell would look well in this list, but the dams of them were not nominated. The list is as follows:

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Jockey Dominick was yesterday suspended from riding for an indefinite period by the judges. The ride he gave Burnie Bunton in the second race was not entirely to the liking of the officials and they had the jockey before them to explain why the mare showed but little of her speed in the race. After hearing what Dominick had to say they summoned J. F. Newman, the owner of the mare, and he stated that he had worked Burnie Bunton on Wednesday and she showed all her old time speed. In addition to the work of Wednesday the mare was sent a fast furlong through the stretch yesterday. After hearing this the judges issued the notice of Dominick's suspension.

Ed Corrigan wired yesterday to Secretary Farmer of the Highland Park track for ten stalls. This indicates that the ex-master of Hawthorne will shortly send a part of his large stable to race at Highland Park and Windsor.

Jockey Helgesen was fined $25 by the starter in the last race for breaking through the barrier.

W. E. Phillips, acting for F. Cook, bought from K. P. Shipp the two-year-old Marlm, by Victory—Lizzie D., and a yearling colt by Knight of Ellerslie—Miss Fonso, for $2,500.

R. Tucker, trainer for S. S. Brown, has sold the two-year-old filly, Penance, to McCarthy & Flynn.

Albert Simons claimed Style, which finished second in the first race, paying $775 for him. W. H. Laudeman, who owned Style, retaliated by claiming Joe Buckley, which finished third, paying $1,175 for him. The latter was entered to be sold for $800, while the former was entered for $400.

Jockey Neely, who rode Lennep in the second race, was suspended by the starter for the remainder of the present Harlem meeting for his failure to break away from the post when told to do so.

J. F. Schorr has sold to A. Tempest for $400 the horse Cork.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A cablegram from London, July 25, states that the entries for the Epsom Derby for 1903 include five horses of King Edward, three belonging to Lord Rosebery and seven belonging to Richard Croker. William C. Whitney and other American owners also have numerous entries. The Duke of Portland has ten entered. All the owners mentioned have entries for The Oaks also. The American entries for the Derby number thirty-six and for The Oaks twenty-one.

The Coney Island Jockey Club has announced a new event for the fall meeting, the Hempstead Cup, with $1,000 added, which includes $100 in plate. The race is a steeplechase for hunters four years old and upward, over the full course, about two and a half miles. The stake will close on August 15.

At Lingfield Park, England, July 12, in the Imberhorne Handicap, seven furlongs, Lord Howard de Walden's chestnut horse De Lacy, five years old, by Hanover—King Cup, by Kingcraft, 112 pounds, won 1 to 24½, the fastest on record in England.

Up to July 12 the following English sires get had won over £5,000: Persimmon, £18,267; St. Simon, £15,224; Carbine, £13,878; Isinglass, £12,859; St. Florian, £9,895; Ayrshire, £9,784; Friar's Balsam, £5,127, and Common, £5,060.

GOULD TO BECOME A TURFMAN.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 7.—It is now a well assured fact that George J. Gould is the latest important addition to the growing ranks of the very rich Americans who have gone into thoroughbred racing in recent years, and that a prominent eastern trainer has been given carte blanc in the matter of selection and purchase price of the string of race horses owned by the retiring racing magnate, Clarence H. Mackay.

The field stand and betting ring and enclosure will be enlarged to meet the growing attendance, and an additional improvement in the shape of a band stand built on the lawn has been decided upon.

Mollie Brant, a green two-year-old filly, by Clifford—Ballyroe, and ridden by a stable boy, finished second to Dazzling, and her disqualification lost her owners, S. Sanford & Sons, a wager of $10,000 to $500 with bookmaker Wheelock to show.

J. R. & F. P. Keene's two-year-old filly, Dazzling, which displayed such brilliant form in her hollow victory over a large field of good ones, and in very fast time, will be her owner's reliance in the $20,000 special next Saturday.

The Gates-Drake confederacy failed to appreciate the really good thing they had in High Chancellor. The colt only received moderate support and young Mr. Gates' wagers were mainly for a place.

GOLF STEEPLECHASE WEIGHTS.

Yesterday Secretary Nathanson announced the weights assigned the "leppers" engaged in the Golf Steeplechase, which will be decided at Harlem Monday. They are as follows:

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The Toronto Jockey Club has announced the following list of stakes, entries to which will close September 11:

Toronto Autumn Cup, three-year-olds and upward, $1,000 added; 1 1-8 miles.

Dominion Autumn Handicap, three-year-olds and upward, $800 added; 1 1-16 miles.

Michaelmas Handicap, two-year-olds, $800 added; 3-4 mile.

Pheasant Plate, selling, three-year-olds and upward, $700 added; 1 1-16 miles.

October Handicap, all ages, $750 added; 3-4 mile.

Jockey Club Handicap, three-year-olds and upward, $1,000 added; 2 miles.

September Steeplechase, $1,800 added; about 2 miles.

Champion Steeplechase, $1,000 added; 3 miles.

"Albert Featherstone's fillies are in hard luck just now. Beina, the fleet daughter of Esher, which was kicked by Herbert while at the post for the Saratoga Handicap on Monday, was in such bad shape today that she was not able to leave her stall. She has a deep gash on her left hind leg, which has filled up, and Julius Bauer is not yet able to say just how severe the injury to the winner of the Brooklyn Handicap will be. There is no doubt in Mr. Featherstone's mind that the filly's poor showing in the race was due to the blow dealt by the hoofs of the vicious Herbert," says a special from Saratoga to the Morning Telegraph.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"Right on the heels of Reina's injury, further casualties came to Mr. Featherstone's stable. Hatasoo was kicked on the off hind leg by Par Excellence before the start of the Alabama Stakes. Lux Casta was on her bad behavior, and, after narrowly missing Josepha with her nimble heels, she tried to take a crack at Hatasoo. The latter, in her eagerness to get out of the way, limped heavily into Par Excellence.
"The daughter of Kantaka is a high spirited miss and she promptly resented Hatasoo's interference, with the result that the latter's off hind leg has a bad bruise."

Last Tuesday the racing firm of Baker & Gentry lost four valuable suckling fillies, which were struck by lightning in the paddock at Kingston Stud. The youngsters were purchased with the rest of Kingston Stud stock on Monday. Three of them were by the Baker & Gentry stallion, St. George, and were out of Freewill, by Friar Rush; Gadabout, by Wanderer, and Sallie McAllister, by Zorilla. The remaining filly was by Knight of Ellerslie—Tohgenie, by Powhattan.

The list of horses eligible for the Annual Champion Stakes, for three-year-olds and over, at two miles and a quarter, has been announced. Among the best of the horses in training are Bellario, "Content," Chilton, Goldsmith, Hyphen, Kilogram, King Hanover, Lux Casta. Major Daingerfield, Peninsula, Slipthrift, Sun Shower, Tom Kenny and Yankee. The best hope for the race, which is the most valuable prize of the American turf for horses three years old and upward, is that it will bring to the post the pick of the three-year-olds, which will include Major Daingerfield, Yankee, Goldsmith and Hyphen.

John Watt, the noted English jockey, died July 29. He won four Derbys, on Persimmon, Ladas, Sainfoin and Merry Hampton. He won the Two Thousand Guineas twice, with Ladas and Royal Hampton. Five St. Leger winners were ridden by him, Ossian, The Lambkin, Memoir, La Fleche and Persimmon. He won the Oaks four times, with Bonnie Jean, Miss Jummy, Memoir and Mrs. Buterwick.

STEEPLECHASE RIDERS.

"The setting down of steeplechase jockey Mara by the Widener stable, and the refusal to allow him to accept outside mounts last week, barely created a ripple of interest in racing circles, yet it meant a very great deal to Mara. More than any one might suppose," says Morning Telegraph.

"The lot of the steeplechase jockey is very much misunderstood anyway, and the general public is sublimely ignorant as to the surroundings of the cross country riders who practically take their lives in their hands every time they ride across the ridiculously 'crabbed' fences dignified by the name of Liverpool, etc., by the National Hunt and Steeplechase Association.

"A jockey on the flat is paid $10,000 a year to ride for a prominent stable, this not including $25 for all winning mounts, and $10 for all losing mounts, for the stable, and what he gets for outside mounts. The steeplechase jockey gets $40 for winning mounts, and $20 for losing mounts—except at Benning, where he received $30 and $15, but never again so little—and unless he has some contract with a stable to retain him, he absolutely cannot live unless he is dishonest. That is a strong statement, but it is the truth, and the facts indorse it.

"On the flat, in 1901, at the metropolitan tracks, there was something over 800 races, averaging nine horses to a race, or 7,200 horses to be ridden. In the steeplechase and hurdle races at the same meetings there were fifty-nine races, with 404 horses engaged. There is the whole thing in a nutshell. The total salary of $40 for every horse that won only amounts to $2,360, divided among how many boys?

"Take this year to the close of Brighton Beach meeting. There have been sixteen steeplechases and twelve hurdle races, and in these 226 horses have started, carrying forty-four jockeys trying to make a living. As twenty-eight horses naturally won, if any single boy had ridden them all, he would only have received $1,020, but unfortunately eight jockeys rode winners. What magnificent salaries for three months' work!

"These winning boys rank as follows:

| Jockeys. | Mounts. | Wins. | Per Cent. |
|------------|---------|-------|-----------|
| Barry | 17 | 9 | 53 |
| Mara | 20 | 8 | 40 |
| Ray | 10 | 6 | 60 |
| Mr. Clarke | 5 | 2 | 40 |
| Fry | 10 | 1 | 25 |
| Carson | 10 | 1 | 10 |
| Veitch | 17 | 1 | 6 |
| Finnegan | 9 | 1 | 11 |

"On this basis, Barry has earned $600; Mara, $380; Veitch, $360; Ray, $320; Carson, $220; Finnegan, $200, and Fry, $100. Mr. Clarke's earnings are not worth figuring, although as a man with an income of hundreds of thousands, no doubt, they gave him great satisfaction.

"What of the other thirty-six riders?

"Taking them in block, Heider rode seventeen unsuccessful mounts, earning $340; Green had eleven, earning $220; Donoghue had ten, earning $200; Monaghan had nine, earning $160; Parson and Dayton had eight, earning $160 each; Hewitt earned $140; Houlihan, $120; Pines and Higgins, $100 each; Saffel, Pending, Bernard, Thomas and O'Neil, earned $80 each; Wilson and Stewart earned $60 each; Callaghan and Murphy, $40 each, and O'Donnell, Johnston, G. Smith, Herting, Dehling, Gallagher, Raymond and Brown earned $20 each. This in three months around the metropolitan tracks.

"Then it is wondered that occasionally a cross-country jockey is accused of fraud, and the general public decries them all as 'crooked'. That this is not so, will be vouched for by any prominent steeplechase or hurdle owner, although there are, of course, black sheep in the fold.

"Compare the steeplechase jockey's chances with those of his brother on the flat, and the wonder is why on earth he remains in a calling where there is so little to be made. Well, it becomes ingrained. He takes to it early and the fascination never leaves him, although the ability to ride may do so. There is scarcely a cross-country jockey who is able to live on his earnings. He is, in a sense, dependent upon what his employer may do for him, and, as a rule, these said employers are very good to their boys.

"Therefore when one conversant with these facts saw Mara set down by his stable, with orders to ride for no one outside, it became rather a serious matter for Mara. Especially when his exceedingly good riding this year rendered him in demand by any one with a good horse who was looking for a jockey. Mara has had nothing to say in the matter beyond taking it before the stewards, which was an eminently wise thing to do, and the proper course to follow.

"Aside from putting Mara straight and enabling him to continue earning his living, it has brought to light a rather curious state of things. The contract with his stable had never been filed with the stewards of the N. H. & S. Association, as it should have been for the mutual protection of both parties."

TODAY TODAY

6 to 1 Shot Special

This one must fall down to lose.
He worked a full second faster than any horse he is pitted against today ever run in.

Our specials Wednesday were BIRDIE D. and CALIBAN. The latter was withdrawn and Birdie D. left at the post. With the track in its present condition every turf speculator should keep in touch with us.

Saturday

we will give our clients a 20 to 1 shot special that will win easily. The kind of information that we furnish is worth its weight in gold.

TERMS $1 DAILY; $4 ANY SIX DAYS.

Delivered to any city address before 12 o'clock and for sale at news stands southeast and northwest corners Clark and Madison Sts.

20 to 1 Shot TODAY

This is the one we referred to in Wednesday's advertisement; did not come off then, but will come off sure today. This one has been prepared for some time for a killing and will be

CUT LOOSE TODAY FOR A LARGE COUP

This one is in a soft spot and will win easily. We also expect one good thing from Saratoga. If you are not on our extra special list and desire to win a good bet, you should not fail to call at my office today.

we have a horse that should be at least 10 to 1 in the betting. This one the handicapper, bookmaker and public will overlook entirely, and the only ones who will bet on him will be our patrons. That they will cash we are fully convinced, and their winnings can be strung along on two others which can only be beaten by accident. For the first time in the history of the American turf, certain inside track information on extensive lines, heretofore gathered in a poor way, but exclusively for a few noted plunders, is being brought within the reach of every racegoer by the RACE TRACK INFORMATION BUREAU.

Winner—Ch. f, by St. Florian—Carline (trained by G. W. Poole).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Floccarine ran to her best form and came away with a rush when called upon in the last eighth. Style ran a good race. She was all tangled up at the start, but made up ground fast when she got clear sailing and outstayed Joe Buckley in a hard drive through the last seventy-five yards. The latter showed his usual speed, but appears to lack heart and tired perceptibly at the end. Goodman appears to have lost his keen turn of speed. King's Lady was a sharp contender for four furlongs and was undoubtedly short.
Scratched—32670 Prince of Endurance, 114; 34156 Licorice, 108; 32327 Brookston, 104; 33470 Maxette, 99.
Overweights—Overlace, 11 pounds; Joe Buckley, 1; Goody Twoshoes, 1; King's Lady, 1.

Winner—B. h, by Martley—Luxette (trained by E. Corrigan).
Went to post at 3:05. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; next four driving. Marta Santa displayed keen speed and outran his field easily throughout. A. D. Gibson stood a long stretch drive with gameness. Duellist finished strongly after making up ground in the last quarter. Icicle displayed speed throughout, but was tiring slightly at the end. Federal came with a rush at the end and was running past horses. He was badly outrun in the early part of the race, but finished resolutely. Burnie Bunton showed scant speed and ran far below her best form. Bummer ran well for five and a half furlongs.
Scratched—(34071) Jim Clark, 104; 34109 Headwater, 104.

Winner—Ch. c, by Commercial Traveler—Dora Wood (trained by F. T. Wood).
Went to post at 3:40. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Stem Winder showed much speed throughout, but had to be hustled at the end to stall off Colonnade's determined bid. The latter finished resolutely and was gradually wearing the winner down at the end. Sidney C. Love tired fast in the last sixteenth and would have lost third place in a few more strides. Estrada Palma was running strongly in the closing strides. Watkins Overton was cut off badly soon after the start, but he ran nowhere near to his true form and can do much better.
Scratched—34132 Vestry, 102; 34108 Tom Cogan, 123; (33984) Poor Boy, 116.

Winner—Ch. g, by Hermencia—Grecia (trained by S. C. Hildreth).
Went to post at 4:15. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Hermencia moved up fast turning into the last quarter and easily passed Nitrate in the last hundred yards. The latter showed much speed and finished strongly, but Hildreth evidently preferred winning with Hermencia. Strangest showed sudden improvement and will bear watching from now on when placed right. Aladdin was well beaten a furlong out. He appears to run to his best form only in soft or heavy going. Omdurman showed early speed.
Scratched—(33825) Lucien Appleby, 108; (34082) John McGurk, 102; 33825 Odnor, 95; 34135 Little Scout, 94; 34161 Caliban, 91; 34135 John A. Clarke, 88.

Winner—Ch. c, by Lamplighter—Little Indian (trained by H. McDaniel).
Went to post at 4:40. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Little Scout came through fast next to the inside rail in the last eighth and was gradually going away from the field at the end. He showed sudden improvement. Autumn Leaves finished stoutly and was the best of the others. She showed wonderful improvement over her last effort, which was miserable. Hoodwink finished strongly on her own courage. She was pocketed on the far turn. Golden Glitter was well beaten when a sixteenth from home. Marque, badly handled all through the first six furlongs, came with a rush at the end. Magi showed early speed and much improvement.
Scratched—33935 Learoyd, 107; 34135 Dewey, 105; 34133 Lingro, 100.

Went to post at 2:34. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Easy Trade was off flying, ran Lexington Bess off her feet and finished stoutly. Barnacle was pulled up in a flying start, given a weak ride, allowed to swerve out from the rail in the stretch and was much the best. Lexington Bess had speed, but stopped. Jean Gravier showed improvement. Marchioness was badly ridden. Votary had no speed today.
Overweights—Jean Gravier, 3 pounds.

Winner—Br. c, by Atheling—Wild Honey (trained by W. F. Presgrave).
Went to post at 2:19. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Dublin is in great form, moved up fast into the lead when a furlong out and won going away and was best. Chuctanunda went after King Pepper early and had him decisively beaten when frightened for home, but evidently lacked in condition and was unprepared for the winner's rush. He will probably develop into the crack sprinter of the year. King Pepper set an amazingly fast pace considering the bad state of the track and although tiring still held on well and is another high-class sprinter. The others were far outclassed. Belle of Lexington quit early. Wealth broke slowly and closed a gap. Glen Water finished strongly. Sister Jeanie held her own well throughout and was short. St. Barnaby is strictly a mud runner.
Scratched—26001 Miss Hastings, 95; 34114 Tenagra, 84.

Winner—Br. c, by Wagner—Mattie T. (trained by J. E. Madden).
Went to post at 2:49. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Colonel Bill, very fit and favored by the going, led throughout and stuck to his work very gamely. Gold Cure finished strongly and was gradually wearing him out at the end. Sombraero drew up on almost even terms when a sixteenth out, but failed to stay and was unable to concede the weight. The uneven and cuppy going was also a handicap. Cuspidor was outclassed, but went well for six furlongs.
Scratched—34117 Articulate, 125; 34168 The Rival, 100; 34143 Numeral, 95; 33970 Leonid, 95; 341192 Bluff, 95.

Winner—B. h, by Candemas—Nell Swift (trained by W. K. Karrick).
Went to post at 3:05. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Swiftmas broke fast on the outside and taking the lead at the start appeared a certain winner throughout and outclassed the field at the weights. Belvino, always prominent, came away fast from the field in the last quarter. Redpath finished with a rush and ran a great race at the weights. Flying Buttress, poorly ridden and messed about, was carried wide on the turn and going well in the last quarter. Pearl Finder was forced back in the first sixteenth and closed a big gap in the last half. Five Nations and Anak were tiring at the end. Feme Sole was a good filly for five furlongs only.
Scratched—33520 Moor, 108; 34143 Highlander, 107; 34143 Numeral, 107.

Disqualified for foul.
Winner—Ch. f, by St. Leonards—Splendour (trained by J. Rowe).
Went to post at 3:35. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Dazzling got into action quickly from a flatfooted start, was forced into the rail early and pulled out around and indulged Intervention with the lead to the stretch, where she went to the front and won cantering. She was much the best and is probably a crackerjack. Intervention set a terrific pace for the first half and was tiring at the end and was worn down by the fast coming Molly Brant. The latter ran a great race in spite of an incapable jockey, who allowed her to swerve into Intervention at the end and was disqualified. Ada Nay, away badly, closed a big gap. Sparkle Esher went remarkably well at the weights. Lady Josephine, crowded back at the start, was repeatedly interfered with throughout and made up ground.
Scratched—34138 Lady Albercraft, 119; 34118 Christine A., 111; 34013 Stamping Ground, 111; 32648 Meddling Mary, 104; 33989 Glorious, 104; 33731 Lass o' Linden, 104; 34065 Erora, 104; 32233 Florite, 104.

Winner—B. h, by His Highness—Louissette (trained by A. L. Aste).
Went to post at 4:00. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Prince Richard distinctly liked the going and, with lucky and clear sailing, passed the pacemaker in the last furlong and only just lasted out to beat the greatly improved Rossignol. The latter and Vincennes were both closing up fast. Vincennes was badly pocketed and crossed at various times and carried out in the stretch and was best. Andy Williams, away poorly, gradually moved up and made a strong bid in the stretch and but for being pocketed in behind the winner would have been placed and ran a fine race. Kilogram tired in the last quarter after giving a good display of speed. Lapidus was short and handicapped by the cuppy going.

Winner—B. c, by Oddfellow—Leonatus mare No. 2 (trained by E. Wishard).
Went to post at 4:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. High Chancellor, being in close quarters, went through next to the rail in the worst going, forced the pace for the first half and came away in decisive fashion in the last furlong and was much the best. Dr. Saylor came fast at the end. Cinquevalli went well at the weights. Wax Candle followed the winner closely and displayed brilliant speed for a half and tiring at the end, crossed his front legs and fell when he had second place assured. Forward was nearly left and badly ridden, repeatedly crossed and interfered with, but finished like a whirlwind and should have been second. Decoration closed a gap and was going strongly at the end.
Scratched—34017 Fullback, 97; 34118 Dark Planet, 97; 33989 Glorious, 94.

Went to post at 2:50. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Pilaster saved ground at all the turns, was best and came away when his rider was ready after racing Little Rock into subjection. Little Rock ran to his best form, was tiring at the finish and had as much as he could do to stall off Peter T. at the end. The latter finished strongly and was gaining at every stride. Crisscross showed speed for nearly six furlongs. Linora could not extend herself in the going.
